

Business Management System Scope

The design and manufacture of wiring harnesses and related enclosures, tyre pressure and temperature monitoring systems, force measurements applications, steering wheels, related electronic products and composite enclosures supplied through our facility in Diss, Norfolk, UK.

All clauses of ISO 9001: 2015 are applicable to all the activities identified in the scope.

In determining the scope due consideration has been given to the context of the organisation and the needs and expectations of the interested parties.